BELLS TO TELL OF VOTES FOR WOMEN

Woman's Organization Asks Every Bell Be Rung Saturday Afternoon.

A STATE CELEBRATION

Justice Bell Will Be Rung in Philadelphia at Great Mass Meeting Celebrating Victory.

Women of Adams county will celebrate the ratification of the Federal Woman's Suffrage Amendment, according to plans that are now being made by the local branch of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters. Suggestions from the State headquarters in Philadelphia to Mrs. John D. Keith, chairman of the county organization, urges that every bell be rung in the county at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the time when a mass meeting is being held in Philadelphia and when the Woman's Justice Bell will be rung.

Church and school house bells and the Court House bell will be rung here, if the plan suggested by the local women is followed. Word is being sent out to school teachers and ministers in the county to grant the request of the women of Pennsylvania to proclaim this momentous national event by a bell ringing ceremony.

The bell that will be rung in Philadelphia was given to the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association by Mrs. Charles W. Ruschenberger. The bell is a replica of the historic Liberty Bell, which hangs in Independence Hall and it toured the State in 1915 visiting every county and was largely responsible for the large vote which the State amendment secured this year. Speakers addressed hundreds of thousands throughout the State from the platform of the Justice Bell's truck.

Women of other organizations, such as the Federation of Women's Clubs, The Women's Christian Temperance, the Daughters of the American Revolution and similar organizations of women have been requested by the local league of women voters to lend their aid in having the bells of the county rung next Saturday afternoon.

PADDLE WHEELS FEATURE FAIR

Gettysburg and Adams county residents by the hundreds visited the Hanover Fair Wednesday afternoon and evening. They saw the usual long rows of fairs and food stands with a noticeable scarcity of midway attractions. The racing during the afternoon and the fireworks at night drew the crowds to the paddock and the grandstand.

Games of chance and gambling devices out number the eating stands and the drone of at least one hundred paddle wheels is easily heard above the shouts of the fairs. There is the usual display of farm machinery, garden truck, seed, fruit and vegetables in the Agriculture Building, with chickens, turkeys, ducks and geese and pet stock in the Poultry House.

It is estimated by Fair officials that between 15,000 and 20,000 entered the grounds on the first big day. Twenty special policemen, appointed by the Agriculture Association, were on duty and kept the crowd moving.

Chief Gunner's Mate M. F. Olsen, who was in charge of the navy recruiting station here is in charge of a recruiting tent on the grounds. Sailor James White, the navy strong man, is giving exhibitions of strength in the way of bending half inch nails with his hands and breaking them off with his teeth from planks into which they have been driven. Moving pictures of the work of the navy at home and abroad are shown every evening.

IRA E. LADY POST MEETS

Filled Out Applications For Victory Medals.

Arrangements were made by Ira E. Lady Post of the American Legion, Arendtsville, for the procuring of Victory Medals at their special meeting Wednesday evening in the Arendtsville Fire House. Members of the post brought their discharge certificates to the meeting and filled out the application blanks which will be sent to the Harrisburg Recruiting Station.

According to reports from Arendtsville, the ex-service men in that section are more anxious to get the medals than those of Gettysburg. Fully twenty five had to be turned away on account of the lack of the necessary blanks. Efforts are being made to secure the necessary blanks at once so as to insure the arrival of the medals for the Armistice Day presentation.

CAPTAIN NIXON LEAVES

Captain T. H. Nixon, of the United States Engineers, formerly stationed at Austin, Texas, left Gettysburg on Tuesday for Boston, Massachusetts, where he will take up a course of study in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Captain Nixon will specialize on construction work, and it is probable he will be assigned to construction work on the New Orleans levee upon the completion of his course.

DEATH HASTENED BY ACCIDENT

WAS SLIGHTLY INJURED

Narrowly Escaped Death When Blinded by Lights of Car Near His Home Last Saturday.

Oliver Currens, well known Cumberland township farmer and auctioneer, died at his home along the Fairfield road about two miles from Gettysburg at 11 o'clock Wednesday evening. He was aged 79 years, 2 months and 24 days.

Mr. Currens' relatives believe his death was caused by pneumonia, hastened along by internal injuries received last Saturday when he was struck by a car driven by Mervin Weikert, of near Fairfield.

The accident occurred after Mr. and Mrs. Currens had returned from a shopping trip to Gettysburg. Mr. Currens started to walk across the road to his mail box, and was blinded by the lights of a touring car coming from Gettysburg, and did not see the Weikert car bearing down from the west. He jumped back but was not in time to avoid being knocked down by the car, it is said. At first his injuries were not considered serious, but on Sunday a physician was summoned and pronounced his illness as bronchitis. From Sunday Mr. Currens' condition became steadily worse until pneumonia caused his death Wednesday evening.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters, William A. Currens, Lineboro, Maryland; Mrs. J. C. Reinecker, Gettysburg; and Mrs. E. J. Settle, York.

Funeral Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by his pastor, Rev. F. E. Taylor, of Gettysburg. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

GEORGE H. KRENZER

Following a sickness of several months from a complication of diseases, George H. Krenzer, well known farmer of Union township, died Wednesday morning at the family residence, near Burstown. He was aged 66 years, 5 months and 18 days. Mr. Krenzer was born in Germany, coming to this country with his parents when only three years of age. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Alice Fowble, who survives with the following daughters and son, Mrs. Howard Rodkey, Taneytown; Mrs. Simpson Mummert, White Hall; Mrs. Irvin Stonesifer, Littlestown; Mrs. Harry Strine, near Littlestown; Mrs. Ralph Schuman, Sell's Station, and Charles and Grace Krenzer at home. One brother and three sisters, Mrs. Harry Sittig and John Krenzer, Union Bridge; Mrs. Charles Crist, Union Mills, and Mrs. William Eckert, Taneytown, also survive.

Funeral Saturday morning. A short service conducted at the Krenzer home at 10 o'clock and further services in Christ Reformed church, near Littlestown, the Rev. Dr. F. S. Lindaman officiating. Burial in the cemetery adjoining the church.

COMMISSIONERS INSTRUCT WOMEN

To Publish Statements Telling How to Pay Taxes.

In order to clear up questions existing in the minds of the women taxpayers as to just when and how taxes may be paid, the Adams County Commissioners will publish complete statements covering those points in several county newspapers beginning Friday of this week.

"The Commissioners' office is preparing statements," George Baker, commissioners' clerk says, "for the several papers of the county which will clear up questions that are asked as to what is required of women in respect to the taxes that were assessed in September."

"The official statement will say that tax collectors will not send fall notices to women taxpayers as is done in April of each year to the men."

Women must pay their taxes on or before October 2 in order to qualify to vote. Under the law any person, man or woman, may, by signed authority, deputize another to pay the occupation tax assessed against him or her, it is added.

"This later provision of the law will make it convenient for women," the Commissioners say, "in that they need not appear before the tax collector themselves, but may authorize their husband, father, brother, son, or any other person to appear there and pay the tax."

As has been the custom for many years, the county treasurer's office will continue to receive the taxes of those who find it more convenient to pay them there than to the tax collector.

NO POT OF GOLD

Mrs. Bergdoll Says Grover's Story Was Not True.

(By Associated Press)
Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll on trial here, charged with conspiracy to aid her sons, Grover and Erwin to evade the draft law, today blasted the "pot of gold" story told by Grover to gain his release from Governor's Island, New York, to hunt the buried treasure in Maryland. "It is true," she testified, "that I went to Washington with James S. Romig, and that we drew $105,000 in gold from the treasury, but that gold was not for Grover, but for me and I still have it."

CONDEMN HEALTH INSURANCE PLAN

CONCERNS ALL DOCTORS

Place Cost at $45,000,000 And Would Open 8,000 Political Positions. Dr. Edward Martin, Speaker.

Prominent homeopathic physicians of the State in session at Harrisburg have condemned the enactment of any legislation that would introduce compulsory health insurance into Pennsylvania. This question, it is said, will be presented to the legislature of the State which meets next year. It is a subject that local medical societies have been urged to discuss.

Dr. G. W. Hartman, of Harrisburg, cousin of Dr. H. M. Hartman, of town, was elected today president of the homeopathic society of the State of Pennsylvania.

Dr. E. S. Snyder, of Lancaster, in a vehement address, declared that health insurance in Pennsylvania would mean the introduction of an old Continental system of classes.

He asserted that in England and on the Continent the enactment of health insurance legislation had effected a great change in the medical profession and tended to lower its efficiency.

Places Cost at $45,000,000
Dr. Snyder said, in addition, that such a law in this State would cost the taxpayers about $45,000,000 annually and that it would add just 8,000 more political positions to the payroll. It would take 2,000 physicians for the work alone, he said, and 8,000 laymen for supervision.

Aims of the State Health Department were pointed out by Dr. Edward Martin as follows:

"The State Department, your executive agent, has mapped out a policy of reducing diphtheria to its possible minimum. Diphtheria is both preventable and curable; therefore, it can be prevented, and when it develops can be cured only by the medical profession."

"The prevention depends upon the determination of those who are susceptible to it, by the simple, safe and fairly efficient Schick test, and the treatment of those who are found thus susceptible by the toxin-antitoxin injections, by means of which they are rendered non-susceptible. When the disease develops it can be cured by adequate doses of antitoxin given early. This is a simple, a safe and an efficient policy. If carried out effectively in Pennsylvania, diphtheria

ATTEND DEDICATION

Catholic National Shrine Started in Washington.

Today the corner stone of the National Shrine of the Soldiers and Sailors was laid at the Catholic University in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. George Eberhart, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farrel, and son, Edward, Miss Mary Clark and Miss Lillian Farrel, of town, motored to the capital to witness the ceremony. The dedication is a part of the meeting being held by the Catholic Church of the United States. Sixty two bishops and archbishops are in attendance at the sessions which are presided over by Cardinal Gibbons.

The promotion of the cause of an American for the honor of being canonized as a saint was considered by the meeting. At the last meeting, held a year ago, Cardinal Gibbons had been requested to convey to the ecclesiastical authorities at Rome the unanimous desire of the American hierarchy for the canonizing of Mother Elizabeth Seton, of Emmitsburg, founder of the Sisters of Charity in the United States. Cardinal Gibbons announced that he had laid the matter in the hands of Cardinal Vico, the secretary of the congregation of rites.

BOYS BREAK INTO MEADE BUILDING

School Board May Cause Arrest of Two Known Culprits.

Drastic measures will be taken by the Gettysburg School Board to break up the practice of youths of the town looting on school property at night. For some time people living near school houses in Gettysburg have been complaining that a number of boys of the town were causing annoyance and doing damage around the building at night, but the board of directors did not seriously consider taking action.

The climax of the situation came Wednesday evening when a group of boys broke into the Meade School Building and did considerable damage. Books were scattered about over the floors, and it is believed some supplies were taken from the building.

The names of at least two of the culprits are known. It was the intention of the board to have them arrested immediately, but when the State Police were looked for, it was learned they were on duty in Hanover. It is the intention of the board to prosecute anyone who is found loitering about school property at night in the future.

Some years ago petty thieves broke into the High School Building and stole some money and supplies during the night. At that time the names of the guilty parties were not known, but in the present case, which is a similar offense, two boys at least are known.

NEW WALL STREET CLUE

(By Associated Press)
New York, Sept. 23.—While investigators were still seeking to solve the mystery of the Wall Street explosion a week ago, police headquarters announced a package containing dynamite was found today on the platform of the Reid avenue elevated station in Brooklyn. At the same time the announcement came from police headquarters that a slip of paper found in Wall street near the horse attached to the death cart had been identified as one issued by the health department in 1918 to the Reid Ice Cream company, of Brooklyn, certifying that the horse was not afflicted with glanders. Detectives left immediately to question company officials as to whether the horse had been sold within the last two years.

The bureau of combustibles at police headquarters announced that the dynamite package was a bomb with fuse attached burning when a patrolman found it and "put it out." Detectives took the bomb to bureau headquarters in Manhattan.

Trading Heavy With Over 300,000 Shares Changing Hands.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Sept. 23.—Trading in the stock market during the morning was on the largest scale of any corresponding period for many weeks more than 300,000 shares changing hands in the first hour. The market lacked breadth, however, activity centering mainly in the low priced rails and obscure coals which gained 1 to 2 points. Motors and their subsidiaries manifested increased weakness with steels and equipment, notably Kelly Springfield tire and Crucible and Republic steels. High grade oils were lower by 1 to 4 points, shippings, metals and chemicals were heavy. An irregular rally before noon was led by Replote steel and the tobacco. Call money opened at seven per cent.

IRISH FAMILIES SLEEP IN FIELDS

One Thousand Flee When Town of Balbriggan is Wrecked.

FEAR BRITISH SOLDIERS

Black And Tans on Job. Are Reinforcements of The Royal Irish Constabulary Now.

Balbriggan, Ireland, Sept. 23—Nearly 1000 persons, about half the population of this partly devastated town, crept back to their homes Wednesday morning, after having spent a second night of terror in the outlying hayfields. Once during the middle of the night an alarm was raised, which caused a stampede of the people to remote fields, where they took refuge under hedges and haystacks, or whatever shelter they were able to discover in the dark.

Women and old men shivered in the cold of the night and until dawn, when a reconnoitering party found things quiet in Balbriggan, and all of them gradually returned to their homes.

The correspondent, who arrived at an early hour from Dublin, witnessed the last of the population coming home—women, with crying infants in their arms; men carrying blankets and baskets of food, and children endeavoring to rub the sleep from their eyes. Only a handful of the residents of Balbriggan had been courageous enough to pass the night in their houses.

Many of the townspeople had scattered among friends in neighboring villages, while others had gone to farms about Dublin more than 20 miles distant.

Black And Tans Ride Through Town

Groups of townspeople stood in the streets gazing at the smoking ruins of houses wrecked by bombs or burned after having been soaked with petrol Monday night. Twice during his visit the correspondent saw motor tenders, each containing a half dozen "Black and Tans," recruited from army men to reinforce the Royal Irish Constabulary, wearing non-descript uniforms; half khaki and half police blue, whizz through the main thoroughfare, the men rifles in hand. The local police consisted of 20 Royal Irish Constabulary veterans. They are said to have prevented the "Black and Tans" from burning the principal factory in the town and also to have saved other property.

One child had a remarkable escape from a stray rifle bullet, which carried away an apple from its mouth without injuring its fingers or lips.

The body of Royal Irish Constabulary Inspector Burke, who was killed during the early fighting, was removed yesterday from the police station, but the bodies of Gibbons and Larless still lay in a nearby outhouse awaiting the holding of an inquest.

Won't Rebuild Wrecked Factory

The manager of a British-owned hosiery factory, the inside of which was completely ruined, was preparing Wednesday to return to England. He said it would be impossible to rebuild the plant. The manager suggested that the burning of this factory marked a new phase in alleged attempts to suppress the Sinn Féin. He said that although many creameries which had been community property had been destroyed in Ireland, he believed the burning of the hosiery factory to be the first instance of a deliberate attack on an industrial works. In this factory about 400 employees, including many women, have been thrown out of work. If the other factory had been destroyed virtually the entire working population of Balbriggan would have been rendered idle. The skilled mechanics and other employees of the ruined factory say they will be unable to find jobs elsewhere in their particular line of work in Ireland.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear father, who departed this life six years ago, September 23, 1920. Six years ago today, My darling father passed away; We loved him, Oh, perhaps too well, For soon he slept and died.

At morn and noon and 'ere, There is a vacant chair, An aching void in every heart, To whom, he was so dear.

Peaceful be your rest, dear father, September's gentle breezes breathe your name, But what a comfort God has given, We all can meet again in heaven.

In spirit realms so fair, Gone to meet your Saviour there, You have only gone to sleep, Where bright angels watch do keep.

We did not see him here in pain, We did not hear him moan, He slowly faded from our presence, How our aching hearts despaired.

SLACKER OFFERED BRIBE TO GUARD

Former Officer Asked to Accept $10,000 to Assist in Escape.

Philadelphia, September 23—Grover C. Bergdoll, while confined to the military prison on Governors Island, bribed his guards and plotted to escape in a motor-boat, according to testimony given by Thomas E. Furey, a Baltimore automobile salesman, Wednesday in the trial of Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, Grover's mother, and four other defendants, who are charged in the United States District Court with conspiring to assist Erwin and Grover Bergdoll to evade the draft. Furey declared that Grover had summoned him to Governors Island, told him that he had "fixed" two guards and asked him to get a motor-boat and assist him to escape.

"Grover offered me $10,000 if I would see his brother and make such arrangements, but I turned him down and told him he was sure to be caught if he tried it," Furey testified.

The witness described how he had come to this city with Erwin Bergdoll and how the latter had hid in a stone quarry near the home of Charles Braun, brother of the draft evaders and a defendant in the present proceedings, while a new automobile was bought for him in this city.

Upon cross-examination Furey declared he had declined Grover Bergdoll's offer, but admitted having conveyed the prisoner's plan to Braun.

Furey was a lieutenant in the Army, but did not get overseas. His testimony was a sharp battle of words between himself and Mr. Bean, attorney for Mrs. Bergdoll, which revealed a number of drunken escapades in which Furey had taken part with the Bergdoll brothers and also succeeded in bringing into the case the "inevitable" woman. She was identified by Furey as Miss Nell Emerson, a woman who had gone joy riding with both him and Erwin.

HANOVER RACES

Large Crowds See Hard Fought Finishes.

Ideal weather, large attendance and spirited racing were features of the second day of the Hanover Fair and race meeting. Three harness and two running events were carded and fast time was made. Chief interest centered in the Gen. Co. Light $1000 stake for 2.17 pacers. Teddy Gratten, the New Jersey campaigner, captured first money, but Betty M. was a close contender, with the field bunched at all times. Thomas Berry, who drove the winning horse in every race Wednesday, piloted George Watts to victory in straight heats. In the 2.15 trot, Betty Dodge was hard pushed by Dick March. In the second event for side-wheelers, but came out victorious in the fifth heat at sundown. Summary:

MARKETING PROBLEM

Confronted with an apple crop 100 per cent larger than last year, surrounded by States which will produce more than half of the entire crop in the United States, Maryland growers this year will have the marketing problem of no mean proportions.

In compiling reports on apple conditions in the State, it has been found each month adding to the prospects for a bumper crop. Earlier estimates on fruit conditions gave but a glimpse of the 462,000 barrel yield which is now promised in the State. Good weather and the absence of serious injury from diseases have more than offset the damage done by the late cold weather in early spring.

COX'S TRAIN IN WRECK IN WEST

COX THROWN ACROSS CAR

His Coach Remains on Track. Engineer Breaks Leg. Wreck Caused by Spreading Rails.

Phoenix, Ariz., September 23—Governor Cox's presidential campaign train was wrecked about 4:30 o'clock, Wednesday, 14 miles north of here, while en route to Prescott, Arizona.

The Democratic presidential candidate and his party were severely shaken when an engine and four cars of the special train were derailed, but all escaped serious injury. The most seriously injured was Charles A. Nichols, engineer, of Prescott, who had a leg broken in jumping from his cab when his engine toppled over.

Spreading rails were assigned by railroad men as the cause of the wreck which compelled the Governor and his party to return here last night and cancel his evening address at Prescott. His future itinerary also was upset.

Cox's Car Stays on Track

The accident occurred a half mile out of Peoria, a village on the Santa Fe Railroad. After the Governor had delivered several speeches here the train, consisting of six cars and drawn by two engines, needed for the up-grade to Prescott, left here at 4 o'clock. About a half hour later, while running at a speed estimated at between 35 and 40 miles an hour, the train jarred suddenly, as if in collision, and then application of the emergency brakes, bumping over broken rails and ties and the careening of cars, told passengers the story.

The four forward cars were derailed, the Governor's private car at the rear and the adjoining compartment car of newspapermen, except for its forward truck, remaining on the rails.

A baggage coach jumped the track about 15 feet and turned over on its side. Two passenger coaches and another compartment car behind also slipped 10 feet from the track and partly toppled over.

Some Passengers Cut

The first engine of the double-header, Engineer F. C. Sutton, of Prescott, said, left the rails and then jumped on again, but the second engine toppled over amid a cloud of escaping steam. The tender of the forward engine also fell over, while the first passenger coach ran the length of the overturned baggage car and jammed its forward end into the trucks.

All of the passengers on all cars were thrown topsy-turvy. Some suffered bruises and cuts from flying glass. In the rush for escape several women passengers in the coaches were put through broken windows.

Cox Thrown Across Car

Governor Cox was in the dining-room of his private car, going over papers with Dr. Robert G. Goldsmith, his assistant, on the League of Nations question, when the crash occurred.

"What's that?" he shouted, rising to his feet only to be thrown heavily across the car against its wall. He was shaken up, but rushed out to assist the injured and this accomplished, coolly smoked a pipe while waiting for a wrecking train to arrive and take him back to Phoenix.

Of the passengers, including several of the local reception committee of Prescott and Phoenix, Judge E. E. Bollinger, of the Mojave County Court, suffered a bruised leg. Several others had cuts and bruises and torn clothing. Personal effects of all members of the train were scattered and broken.

CITIZEN CALLS IT INSULT

Says Few Know of Great Work Miss Briel Did.

Concern over the relinquishment of the duties performed here by Miss Kate Briel, representative of the Civic Nursing Association, is contained in a letter to THE TIMES as follows:

Although few persons know the full extent of the work done by Miss Briel during her eight years of service here, some of us are aware of the great amount of service performed which was really not a part of her job. The Nursing Association may be able to secure a successor to Miss Briel at the same salary, but the amount and quality of work that will be done cannot be compared to the services given by Miss Briel. In fact it would be an insult to the present nurse to employ another even at the same salary, knowing the quality of work that has been done. It is hardly possible to suppose that the Nursing Association would consider employing another nurse at higher wages than Miss Briel was receiving.

MANY WILLING TO SELL THEIR EARS

New York, September 23—Frank Quesada, sugar planter, of Manzanillo, Cuba, who recently arrived here for the expressed purpose of purchasing a good left ear to replace one he lost in an accident, has received many proffers of ears.

Wednesday Quesada, who is staying at the residence of his cousin, Joseph Quesada, 158 East One Hundred and Twenty-second street, received 30 letters and a steady stream of applicants in person.

Among the letters in his mail was one from a George Taylor, who signed himself "City Prison, 101 Center street." This guest of the Tombs said he was willing to part with an ear for $1,000, half the price offered as he needed the money and had always found ears in the way when in a fracas.

One man, writing from Hartford, Connecticut, who wanted his offer kept "absolutely private, as he had a few fussy relatives," said he was willing to sell his ear for the price quoted, and his reason for doing so was that he was married and wanted to retire to a peaceful life in the country, where there would be so little to hear that it could all be done with one ear.

Several applicants who called will go to Quesada's physician, Dr. John McCoy, 157 West Seventy-third street, for a blood test, and the one who shows up best will be considered for the operation. Should the grafting not be successful in New York, Quesada has his passport ready and will go to Germany to see specialists and people with ears to sell there.

WINS IN 100 TO 1 CHANCE

Railroader Who Had Legs Crushed Will Use Them Again.

Accepting a 100 to 1 chance of death, William H. Gallatin, whose legs were practically severed in a railroad accident in York last December, authorized the York Hospital surgeons to endeavor to restore them rather than amputate them, and Wednesday announcement was made that the operation was a complete success. Gallatin's reward for his courage will be the full use of both legs. General attention has been attracted among the medical profession by the feat.

When Gallatin was placed on the operating table after having been conscious two hours while an acetylene torch was used to cut away two cars between which he was crushed, his left foot fell to the floor, and the right hung by a single leader. A nurse who picked up the severed foot detected a slight pulse and the surgeons hurriedly sewed the foot fast. The man's rapid recovery is regarded as nothing short of a miracle.

DISTRIBUTE REWARD

Six Will Split $1,000 For Capturing Thurmont Murderer.

Six persons will share in the $1,000 reward, offered by the County Commissioners for the delivery of the body of Clarence S. Wallace, safe-blower and murderer of Leo M. Creager, of Thurmont. The distribution made by the judges of the Circuit Court of Frederick county is as follows: Charles A. Kahler, Thomas W. Quirk and Cornelius Roche, Baltimore detectives, who directed the operations leading to the capture of Wallace, $363.53 jointly.

Frederick Lavery and William F. Marquette, Santa Barbara, California, detectives, who shot and killed Wallace, $363.54 jointly. The sum of $122.93 was deducted for the expenses of working up the case, leaving $871.07 to be distributed among the claimants.

BACK FROM JAIL; ROBBED

Hagerstown Man Finds Horse in Cellar.

After serving two months in the Washington county jail on the charge of wifebeating Scott Knight, recently released under bond for trial in November, returned to his home at Bridgeport to find the house had been robbed during his imprisonment, clothing, dishes, etc., being taken away. Knight also is puzzled to know how his horse, which he tied in the stable, got into the cellar of the house where he found the animal the following morning. Knight is not satisfied that "spooks" are at work.

HAYS APPOINTS SPROUL

Governor William C. Sproul has been appointed by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National committee, as a member of an advisory campaign committee of forty members which, he says, is recruited "from every faction within the party" and proves that the party is a unit.

WED UNDER DIFFICULTIES

Hershey Couple Get License Here. Ceremony at Hanover.

Poor railroad service from Harrisburg to Gettysburg, three blow-outs and dim lights of their taxi and difficulty in finding a minister upon their arrival at Hanover, did not deter Edwin W. Schwenk and Miss Grace V. Adams, both of Hershey, from getting married Wednesday evening.

The young people decided some time ago to surprise their friends by getting married quietly. Accordingly Clerk of the Courts J. R. Hartman was requested to be on hand at his office Wednesday evening between seven and eight o'clock to issue the license. After the couple had called and the license had been granted, Arthur Hutchinson, of town, drove them to Hanover. Although the lights of the car refused to function and blow outs occurred frequently the party reached Hanover about 10 o'clock where the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. William I. Reday.

The newlyweds then returned to Gettysburg. Mr. and Mrs. Schwenk will remain in town until Sunday when they will return to Hershey.

WHO WILL HEAD LEGION?

Prominent Men Mentioned as Commander of Organization.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 23.—Who is to head the American Legion the coming year is receiving attention in anticipation of the second annual convention of the Legion opening in Cleveland, Sept. 27.

Among those mentioned here for the office of commander are Milton J. Foreman, of Illinois, Emmett O'Neill, of Kentucky, Hanford MacNider, of Iowa, and F. W. Galbraith, of Ohio. Foreman was a colonel and state commander. When he took charge of the Illinois department it was 21st in legion membership. Now it is first. Foreman, who is more than 60 years old, served also in the Spanish-American war.

Kentucky is boosting O'Neill for the leadership because of his activity in legion affairs, especially as an organizer and leader.

MacNider is said to have more decorations than any other American with the exception of General Pershing. None of them for valor. He is a bank president in Mason City, Iowa, and vice commander of the Department of Iowa.

Galbraith was a colonel and state commander like Foreman. He was commander of the Ohio department until the Ohio convention at Youngstown elected his successor last month. Colonel C. C. Chambers, of Cleveland, convention executive chairman, predicts that the convention will surpass in numbers any ever held in the country, not excepting the great gatherings of the Grand Army of the Republic.

CLASH OVER SEIZED WINE

Federal District Attorney And Enforcement Officer at Odds.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 23.—Alleging that W. C. Hollister, of Wilkes-Barre, head of the Federal prohibition officers in this district, was exceeding his authority when he removed 12 barrels of wine from the basement of the post office building, Rogers L. Burnett, Federal District Attorney, compelled Hollister to have the wine placed back in the basement, where it was being held pending Court proceedings.

At the internal revenue office it was stated that while Judge Witmer had not made any written order directing the return of the wine, he had told George W. Elia, United States Commissioner, that it had not been legally seized and should be given back to its owner.

District Attorney Burnett insisted that the wine was being removed illegally, saying that under the law no person except a Federal Court Judge has the right to order the return of wine that has been seized. Nothing but a written order from a Federal Judge gives any prohibition officer the right to return such wine, he contends.

LARGE STOCK AT MARKET

Heavy Demand For Products of Best Quality.

Despite threatening weather conditions and the fact that it is the big day at the Hanover Fair, a goodly proportion of the regular marketmen, with an abundant supply of first class products, were on Center Square at the opening of this morning's curb market. Customers turned out early and in large numbers, but due to the large quantity of produce on hand, some of the dealers did not succeed in selling out until a late hour. Clings and late peaches, tomatoes, potatoes, apples, pears and grapes made up the bulk of the commodities offered. Quinces were in great demand. The average price for the latter articles were $3 per bushel. One dealer sold the larger grades at .05 per piece. Potatoes were as low as $1.30. Peaches ranged from $2 to $3 according to the size, ripeness, and variety. Celery sold for .15—.20 a bunch, and fresh apple cider for .25 per gallon.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. People's Drug Store and Shuman's Medicine Store have been appointed agents for Allen's in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

TO THE VOTERS OF ADAMS COUNY:

As a candidate for the Legislature I feel that the voters of Adams County are entitled to a plain statement from me as to my position on the subject of Prohibition.

In my primary campaign I stated that I was in favor of the Prohibition Amendment, and would oppose any effort to repeal it. That is my present position and will be if elected to the Legislature.

I also stated that I was in favor of a more liberal interpretation of the Volstead Enforcement Act in so far as the making of cider and vinegar is concerned, since that time the Federal Revenue Commissioner has remedied that feature by permitting the making of cider. Therefore I am in favor of the Volstead Act remaining as it is, with the rigid enforcement of it not only by the Federal officers, but also by the State Police and local authorities; and will, if elected, oppose any modification of the same which would increase the alcoholic content of any beverage.

I am also sincerely in favor of the present Sunday laws.

They Had a Vision

When you gaze in awe upon a mighty oak tree, it seems hardly possible that such a huge thing could have its origin in a little humble acorn, less than an inch in diameter. But the tiny acorn held a germ of potential magnitude, that needed only the proper soil and nourishment to break its bonds and expand and expand until it became the mighty oak, whose broad limbs could furnish shade and protection for both man and beast.

More than a third of a century ago, there were opened in Philadelphia a few little grocery stores. The public immediately recognized the difference for the men at the head had vision. In their trains there was a dominant idea—a germ that needed only the proper nourishment and care to develop.

Their idea "germ" of giving the public "the MOST of the BEST for the LEAST" was watered by the fount of Honest Service, warmed by the sun of Good Values and nourished by the soil of Economical Merchandising.

A business founded on such splendid bedrock—"a square deal to the public"—could not help growing. The little acorn—those humble stores of thirty odd years ago—is now the mighty oak—the American Stores Co., whose broad limbs spread over four States, protecting the public from the blistering sun of the unscrupulous food profiteer.

What would groceries be costing today were it not for the American Stores Co.?

The war is over and war prices must go. Effective at once Ford Cars, Trucks and Tractors will be sold, f. o. b. Detroit at the following prices:

Touring, plain	540.00
Touring with starter	510.00
Runabout, plain	395.00
Runabout with starter	465.00
Chassis, plain	360.00
Chassis with starter	430.00
Coupe with starter and demountable wheels	745.00
Sedan with starter and demountable rims	795.00
Truck with pneumatic tires	545.00
Tractor	790.00

The Ford Motor Company makes this reduction in the face of the fact that they have on hand immediate orders for 146,065 cars and tractors. The company will suffer a temporary loss while using up the material bought at high prices. They are willing to make the sacrifice in order to bring business back to a going condition as quickly as possible and maintain the momentum of the buying power of the country.

Henry Ford says "The war is over and it is time war prices were over. There is no sense or wisdom in trying to maintain an artificial standard of values. For the best interests of all it is time a real practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and life of the country down to regular pre-war standards."

We are at your command with regular Ford efficiency in service and eagerness to fill your orders.

He heartily recommends it to others. "My kidneys have been giving me trouble for some time," said Rev. Marcum, "the resulting pains in the back were very severe and my whole body was upset. Seeing The Reese Formula R-11 being advertised in the company store at Yolyn I decided to try it. After taking the FIRST bottle my kidneys stopped hurting and I could attend to my work and feel as good as any man could."

I therefore most urgently appeal to all sufferers to get a bottle of the Reese Formula R-11 of they suffer from disorders of the stomach, liver or kidneys for its merit is unquestioned."

If you wish further information, write direct to our Medical Advisor, Medical Department, The Reese Formula Co., Huntington, W. Va.
